

PROLIFE FACTS

In the wake of the British election results, Prime Minister Theresa May needs Northern Ireland's Democratic Unionist Party (DUP) to keep the Conservative government in power.

LifeSite News reports that the last few days have seen a deluge of attacks on the DUP from the media and politicians calling them "extremists".

The "extremists" slur is because the Democratic Unionist Party MPs reject abortion on Christian principles.

Liam Gibson from the Society for the Protection of the Unborn Child said: "Northern Ireland has steadfastly resisted every effort to implement the legislation of abortion, which would inevitably result in the slaughter of innocent babies."

"That's why the DUP MPs are under such unremitting attacks by the pro-abortion lobby right now. Their position reflects the overwhelming majority of people in Northern Ireland as well as a solid block of opinion in Britain."

"We urge Prime Minister Theresa May to stand up to the bullies seeking to demonise anyone who rejects the social policies that have led to the killing of over 8.7 million unborn children under the Abortion Act in Britain."

For more information on pro-life issues, phone Voice for Life on (09) 4430995 or visit www.voiceforlife.org.nz.

Half page
95 x 128.5

PROLIFE FACTS

In the wake of the British election results, Prime Minister Theresa May needs Northern Ireland's Democratic Unionist Party (DUP) to keep the Conservative government in power. Lifesite News reports that the last few days have seen a deluge of attacks on the DUP from the media and politicians calling them "extremists". The "extremists" slur is because the Democratic Unionist Party MPs reject abortion on Christian principles. For more pro-life info, visit www.voiceforlife.org.nz.

Eighth page
47.5 x 128.5

PROLIFE FACTS

In the wake of the British election results, Prime Minister Theresa May needs Northern Ireland's Democratic Unionist Party (DUP) to keep the Conservative government in power. Lifesite News reports that the last few days have seen a deluge of attacks on the DUP from the media and politicians calling them "extremists". The "extremists" slur is because the Democratic Unionist Party MPs reject abortion on Christian principles. Liam Gibson from the Society for the Protection of the Unborn Child said: "Northern Ireland has steadfastly resisted every effort to implement the legislation of abortion, which would inevitably result in the slaughter of innocent babies." "That's why the DUP MPs are under such unremitting attacks by the pro-abortion lobby right now." "We urge Prime Minister Theresa May to stand up to the bullies seeking to demonise anyone who rejects the social policies that have led to the killing of over 8.7 million unborn children under the Abortion Act in Britain." For more pro-life information, visit www.voiceforlife.org.nz.

Quarter page
95 x 64

PROLIFE FACTS

In the wake of the British election results, Prime Minister Theresa May needs Northern Ireland's Democratic Unionist Party (DUP) to keep the Conservative government in power. Lifesite News reports that the last few days have seen a deluge of attacks on the DUP from the media and politicians calling them "extremists". The "extremists" slur is because the Democratic Unionist Party MPs reject abortion on Christian principles. For more pro-life info, visit www.voiceforlife.org.

18/6/2017