John-Henry Westen

John-Henry Westen is the co-founder and editor-in-chief of the first life-and-family issues news service operating on the Internet: LifeSiteNews. A veteran journalist and speaker, John-Henry is the author of thousands of articles on life, family, faith and culture; his LifeSiteNews articles have appeared in hundreds of publications worldwide.

Founded in 1997 and based in Front Royal, VA, LifeSiteNews is the largest pro-life, pro-family news website on the Internet with an average of 5 million page views per month.

Westen has spoken at conferences and retreats, and appeared on radio and television throughout North America, Europe, Oceania and Asia.

John-Henry serves on the executive of the Canadian National March for Life Committee, and the annual National Pro-Life Youth Conference. He is a consultant to Canada’s largest pro-life organization Campaign Life Coalition, and serves on the executive of the Ontario branch of the organization. He sits on the Board for Family Life International NZ.

John-Henry earned an MA from the University of Toronto in School and Child Clinical Psychology and an Honours BA from York University in Psychology. He and his wife Dianne have eight children.
